28th September 2020

Dear parents/carers,

As of September 2020, it is now statutory for schools to teach Relationships and Health Education. During the last academic year, we spent a lot of time reviewing our PSHE (Personal, Social, Health and Economic education) provision and have now designed a new curriculum which covers all the new statutory objectives and more.

As part of this process, it is important that we consult with parents. We are unable to host a parent workshop under current circumstances, and so instead have saved all of the relevant documents onto our website. On the PSHE tab, you will find:

- Statutory Government guidance for teaching Relationships and Health Education
- Our Draft Relationships and Sex Education Policy
- Our updated PSHE curriculum
- A Powerpoint explaining our approach to the new guidance and information about our PSHE curriculum

We would appreciate it if you could find some time to review the above documents and if you have any questions, then please send these to our school email address.

Many thanks for your continued support,

RAWood.

Mrs R Wood
Head of School
